

GANNET
A large _____ that is known for catching _____ by plunge _____.

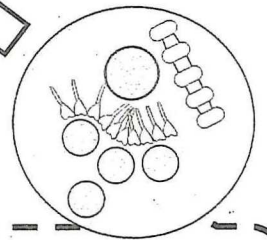

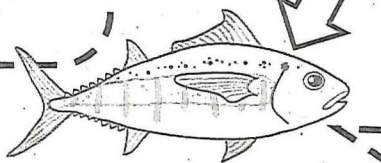

SARDINES
Small _____ that are _____ food for birds, marine _____ and other _____.

ZOOPLANKTON
Tiny _____ that live in water and are _____ by many fish.

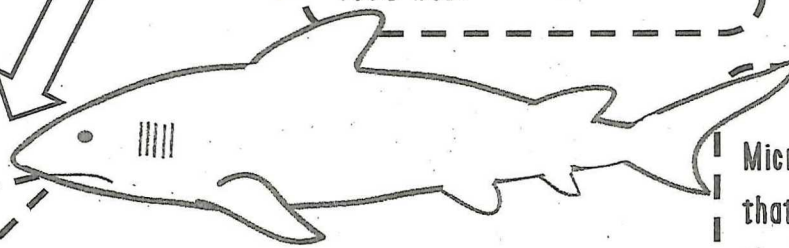

TUNA
Large _____ that is atop _____ in the ocean food web.

PHYTOPLANKTON

Microscopic _____ that harness the energy of the _____.

HAWK
Top _____ in the ocean food web.

Food webs represent the natural flow of _____ in an _____. It is essentially _____ eats _____. It is sometimes called a _____ system.

FOOD WEBS

In a food web, the direction of the _____ represents the direction that _____ travels. After each _____ the amount of energy available is _____.

You try:

Draw your own simple food web using the following organisms. Label each organism and briefly describe it's roll in the web.

- Grass
- Mouse
- Rabbit
- Snake
- Hawk